

SPLASH SCREEN

A user lands on the site splash screen that communicates what the site topic is and a summary of site content. Should communicate the relevance to identified user types by listing learning objectives.

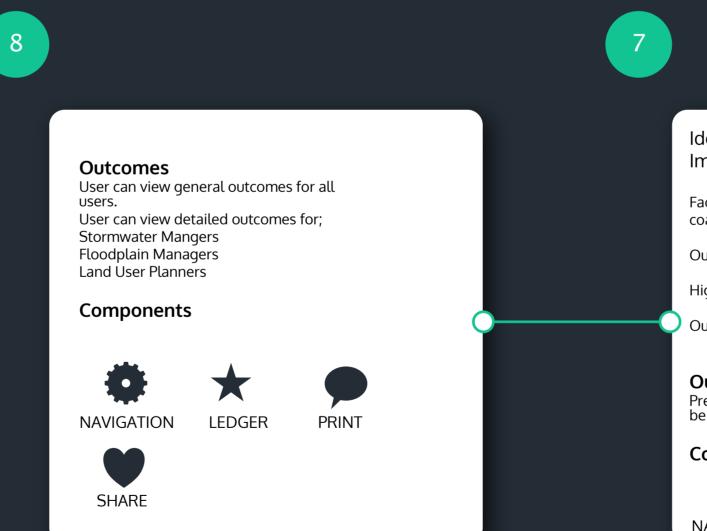

GENERAL OVERVIEW SCREEN

User will get an overview of the topic. User will be able to read the three main use cases the site is intended to address.

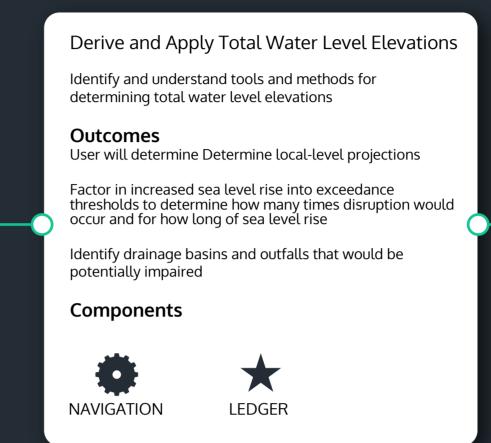

LESSON ONE

User will be introduced to the first topic of the lesson. They can make their first entry into the ledger.

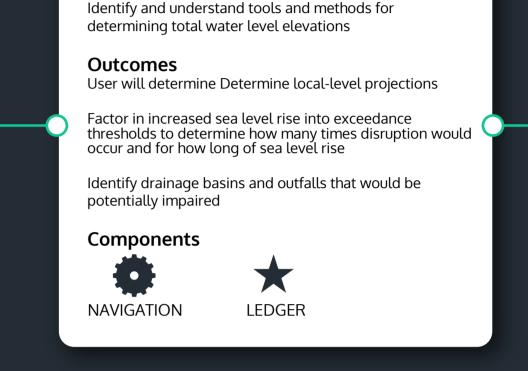

FINAL OUTCOME

User can print out their ledger. User can view detailed outcome based on each of the three user groups. User can view general outcomes for all users.

LESSON TWO

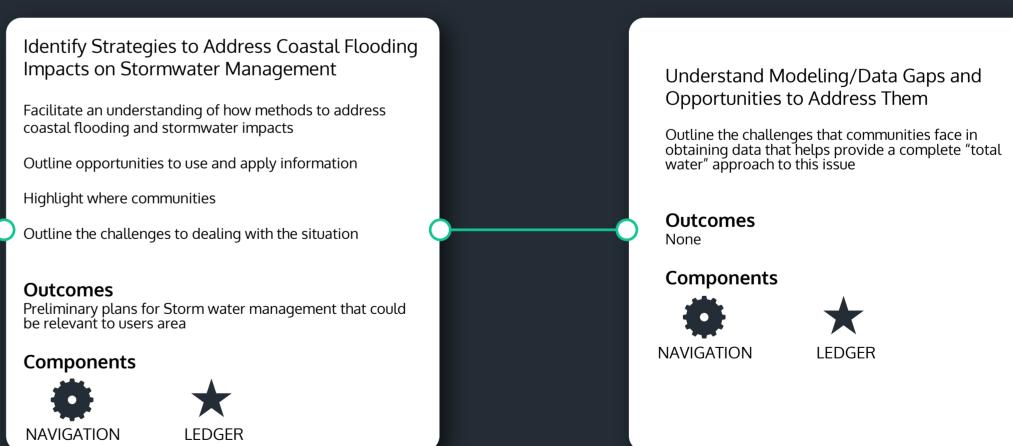

User will be introduced to the second topic of the lesson. They can make their second entry into the ledger.

Derive and Apply Total Water Level Elevations

LESSON THREE

User will be introduced to the second topic of the lesson. They can make their second entry into the ledger.

LESSON FIVE

User will be introduced to the second topic of the lesson. They can make their second entry into the ledger.

LESSON FOUR

User will be introduced to the second topic of the lesson. They can make their second entry into the ledger.